

15 July 2021

Converbs

from a cross-linguistic perspective

Program

- 12:00 - WELCOME SPEECH Adam Pospíšil (PDL):
From Converbs to Construction Auxiliaries – PDL project
- 12:30 - Feng, YuJiao/ Kim, JongBok:
English Predicate Inversion: A Corpus-based Investigation
- 13:00 - Endō, Yoshio:
Converb particle: Core, peripheral and mono-clausal structures
- 13:30 - PLENARY SPEECH Daniel Ross:
Converbs: Definition, Distribution and Typology
- 14:10 – break
- 14:20 - Robin Meyer:
The Rise and Fall of Converbs in Classical Armenian
- 14:50 - Beatrice Grieco:
The emergence of converbs: The case of Indo-Aryan ŚAK- 'to be able to' plus gerund
- 15:20 - Daniel Krauß:
The difference between converbs and coverbs: Are they both complex predicates?
- 15:50 – break
- 16:00 - Andrew Peters:
Two Manners of Composition for Mongolian Contextual Converbs
- 16:30 - PLENARY SPEECH Florian Siegl:
Bier- 'give' and il- 'take' as constructional auxiliaries in Taimyr Dolgan: first notes on a system (in decay)
- 17:10 – Open discussion
- 18:00 – Closing remarks

Prague Descriptive Linguistics group

Charles University, Faculty of Arts

Department of Linguistics – Institute of Asian Studies – Department of Middle Eastern Studies –
Institute of Theoretical and Computational Linguistics