
International Workshop

Language Contact in the Altaic World: A Multiperspective Approach

November 19, 2021, 10.00 – 18.00, Palachovo nám. 2, room no. 326

Program

- 10.00 – 10.10 opening
10.10 – 10.35 Lubomír Novák (Charles University, Prague)
Linguistica Iranoaltaica
- 10.35 – 11.00 Florian Siegl (Tartu)
Constructional Auxiliaries and Language Contact
- 11.00 – 11.25 Bayarma Khabtagaeva (University of Szeged)
On color terms in Dagur
- Coffee break* 11.25 – 11.40
- 11.40 – 12.05 Nika Kapišovská (Charles University, Prague)
Socio-linguistic aspects of the Manchu-Mongolian interaction in pre-1921 administration
- 12.05 – 12.30 Ferenc Horváth (University of Szeged)
Old Uyghur loanwords in Mongolic of Sanskrit origin (based on the Old Uyghur Book of the Dead)
- 12.30 – 12.55 Nuraim Satylkanova (University of Szeged)
Semantical groups of Mongolic elements in Kirghiz language
- Lunch break* 12.55 – 14.30
- 14.30 – 14.55 Andreas Hölzl (Potsdam University)
The Eynu language
- 14.55 – 15.20 Hongorzul (Inner Mongolia University & University of Szeged)
On the meaning of the "river" in Khitan Large Script.
- 15.20 – 15.45 Jack Rabinovitch (Harvard University)
On the Structure and Origin of Honorific Truncation in Sibe
- Coffee break* 15.45 – 16.00
- 16.00 – 16.25 Anita András (Jagellonian University, Kraków)
Some remarks on the language of a South-Western Karaim Bible translation.
- 16.25 – 16.50 Vít Ulman (Palacký University, Olomouc)
Influence of language contact on multi-verbal predicates in Japanese and Korean
- Coffee break* 16.50 – 17.00
- 17.00 – 17.25 Bence Gombkötő (University of Szeged)
Mongolic loanwords in the Manchu equestrian vocabulary.
- 17.25 – 17.50 Veronika Zikmundová (Charles University, Prague)
Journey to the West or Sociolinguistic adventures of Sibe
- 17.50 – 18.00 Closing remarks